Service Learning Chairman Responsibilities

A service learning project is an activity that involves the entire club participating in meeting the needs of the community or school.

Before the meeting:

- Discuss and decide on a service learning activity to help or encourage others in your community.
- Promote the project and lead the club to complete it.
 - Ensure you give yourself and your club time to complete the project before your monthly meeting!
- Complete the reporting page for the project before your club's meeting that month.
 - Example: At the March meeting, you will report on the project completed between your February and March meeting.
 - Things to include in the report: # of youth and adults who brought in items, success stories, challenges you faced, etc.

During the meeting:

- Report on the project that was completed the prior month. Include the steps you took to accomplish this project and the results of the project.
- The Service Learning Chairman, along with the Teacher, should lead the club in introducing the project for the next month and make sure it is completed.

After the meeting:

- Report completed projects in the Service Learning Report Book.
- You may send pictures of your project to Mrs. Sami at samialbright@utk.edu or Ms. Melanie at mhill94@utk.edu

The Service Learning chairman is responsible for delivering items collected, made, etc. to the organization that the club chooses to help.

Service Learning Chairman Report Books are due the same day that Golden Eagle Awards are due to your school!

You must complete at least 4 Service Learning Project Pages for your book to be considered complete.

4-H Service Learning Projects

Each club should make it a goal to complete one service learning project each month. A 4-H service learning project is one in which the total club membership participates in meeting the needs of a school or community. Each month your club will have the opportunity to participate in a county-wide service learning project. Your club is encouraged to be involved with each project. Listed below are agencies or groups that we recommend and the month recommended to complete the project. Also listed is a contact and telephone number. The contact person may be available to come speak to your club about their organization.

October-Tuna Drive - Sevier County Food Ministries "SCFM" or CROSS Ministries of Seymour - The suggested service project to turn in at the October meeting -----Cans of tuna/$1.00.

Contact Person: Jim Davis 865-428-5182

Sevier County Food Ministries is a voluntary interfaith ministry founded in 1992 in downtown Sevierville to help assure that no one in Sevier County goes hungry. The SCFM is guided by the example of Christ, who understood hunger and fed the multitudes. Food and monetary donations to purchase food are contributed by caring individuals, churches, businesses, clubs, groups, and many other persons and organizations.

November-Stuffing Drive-Sevier County Food Ministries "SCFM" or CROSS Ministries of Seymour - The suggested service project to turn in at the November meeting -----Boxes of stuffing.
